What part did you find the most useful?

- Hearing the patient's voice
- The workshops
- Speaking with people around my table
- Being able to share experiences
- Understanding/increased awareness of different roles and their impact on the pathway
- Being reminded to look after ourselves (resilience workshop)
- ACCEND
- Sharing of frustrations and solutions.
- Discussion with Cancer Matters to plan a visit
- Networking between primary and secondary care

Did you gain everything you wanted from the event?

- Lots of participants said yes – absolutely/ it was a fantastic day/it was a well structured day
- Content was appropriate and relevant to most
- The workshops were well received
- The venue and refreshments were highly rated
- Networking was generally valued
- Hearing about the different roles was helpful but there is still some confusion about roles and responsibilities
- Some participants had trouble seeing the slides and/or hearing the speakers at all times
- Some wanted more networking opportunity or to speak with other groups to the ones they were assigned to
- Participants requested a directory of names to help connections
- The mix of primary and secondary care staff worked well
- The input from the patients was highly valued by participants to support them to improve their care
